FUTURE OUTLOOK

The Company continues to strive towards minimizing the adverse impact on performance of the company owing to COVID-19. We have partially resumed the third production shift w.e.f. April 10, 2021 considering the orders for the next winter season. The Company will, however, remain exposed to foreign currency fluctuation risk which may adversely affect the prices of imported wool. Despite various challenges, the Company remains committed to provide quality products to its customers and meeting expectations of its stakeholders through improved sales by working on value added products.

We acknowledge and appreciate the overall performance of the Mill workers, and the continued support received from its customers, staff and executives of the company, particularly under the prevailing pandemic challenges being faced by the entire nation. The Board is also thankful to all stakeholders, Bankers, dealers, vendors, and associates for their valuable support.
